

Do you have a welcome article as the first article on your frontpage? Do you have to "re-order" your frontpage every time you write a new article because the new article gets placed above your welcome article? There are usually a simple solution to complex problems :o)

read full article